

Eleanor Frederick, a graduate of Draughn High School, was awarded the Waldensian Presbyterian Women Scholarship to aid in her future education at North Carolina State University. Eleanor plans to study the science of food and nutrition with the desire to make healthy, safer alternatives to the foods we eat today.