

Emily Fender, a graduate of Draughn High School, was awarded the Waldensian Presbyterian Women Scholarship to aid in her future education at Appalachian State University. Emily plans to pursue a master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology and obtain a career in this field with a school system, a clinic or a medical facility.

