

Eric Leopin, a student at Western Piedmont Community College, was awarded the Raymond K. Miller Scholarship to aid in continuing his education at Western Piedmont Community College. Having already completed two years of schooling, Erik plans to further his education through a program that WCU offers at the Hickory Location and obtain a degree.