Letter from our President

It has been an honor to serve as the 2018 President of the Community Foundation of Burke County Board of Directors. The Board is composed of an esteemed group of Burke County citizens, all of whom have a passion for giving back to our wonderful community. In addition to a well-versed board, the Foundation is very fortunate to have Nancy Taylor as the Executive Director. She has endless energy and enthusiasm as she executes the mission of the Community Foundation of Burke County (CFBC).

2018 was an unsettling year in the markets. In December, there was tremendous volatility and significant decline in the market which led to anxiety for many. It can be difficult to remain calm during market swings; however, patience and resolve during these times are very important. The Foundation is fortunate to have a strong Investment Committee who is guided by our investment policy and remains steady and disciplined during these unpredictable times.

In 2018, the Foundation added seven new funds for a total of 107 funds. Due to the growth of assets and the number of funds over the years, hiring another staff member was necessary. Growth from both the Foundation and Black and Associates, LLC necessitated additional space for the Foundation. The CFBC is thankful to Chip Black for allowing use of his space for the past 17 years. This allowed administrative expenses to remain low as the Foundation experienced growth in fund assets during the critical early years. We cannot thank Chip Black enough for this gracious gift of office space.

Identifying crucial community issues and collaborating with strong partners remains a focus of the Foundation. The transportation system is operating due to the numerous contributions of partners in the community. This was a multifaceted endeavor achieved only through collaboration. The CFBC continually looks for initiatives that “make a difference” in our community.

I look forward to another year serving on the Board of the Community Foundation of Burke County. Please feel free to reach out to Nancy Taylor or any of our board members, if you would like to learn how CFBC can help you “do your little bit of good where you are.”

“Do your little bit of good where you are; it’s those little bits of good put together that overwhelm the world.” – Desmond Tutu

Letter from our Executive Director

In 2018 the Community Foundation of Burke County (CFBC) was pleased to be reaccredited by National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations®. The reaccreditation process requires community foundations to document their policies for donor services, investments, grantmaking, and administration. It is a rigorous and comprehensive legal and administrative review process. Accreditation provides our donors with the knowledge that our “house is in order”. It demonstrates a commitment by our Board of Directors to transparency, quality, integrity, and accountability as our mission is carried out.

CFBC also continued its commitment to the long-term viability of local nonprofits by offering strategic planning, board development and operational best practices to individual agencies. These services are provided at no cost to the agencies and are indicative of the CFBC Board of Directors’ dedication to our community’s charitable causes. In 2018, CFBC also held informational and educational breakfast meetings for all of our local nonprofits. In the breakfast meetings, the Foundation surveyed the nonprofits to ascertain their operational needs, provided updates on local and regional grant opportunities, and solicited their input on the development of the Transportation Project.

To provide better customer service to our donors, nonprofits, and partners in the community, we have welcomed Colleen Moore to our staff. Colleen will support our Finance Director, Theresa Watters, with financial reporting, and will assist with special projects and donor relations. Our office staff is here to help in any way; we encourage you to contact us at (828) 437-7105 or www.cfburkecounty.org.

The 2018 Annual Report is reflective of the work being done by the Foundation. Please read the stories that convey the successes/impact of our scholarship programs, endowments, grant programs, the Burke Youth Organized Philanthropists, and the Burke Women’s Fund. All of these accomplishments are made possible through the generosity of our donors. It remains my privilege to be a part of this organization.

If you know a group that might enjoy learning about us, please contact Nancy W. Taylor at 828-437-7105. We have a brief 15–20 minute presentation that explains how the Foundation works and how anyone can become a philanthropist.
In 2018, $889,912 in grant funding was distributed to qualified nonprofit agencies and organizations. Human Services received the largest allocation (33%).

“One never notices what has been done. One can only see what remains to be done.” – Madame Curie
On October 11, 2018, the Board of Directors of the Community Foundation of Burke County (CFBC) held its annual event to recognize donors and the 2018 grantees. The featured speaker was Kevin Baxter, Director of Western Campus Planning and Project Management, North Carolina School of Science and Math, Western Campus. Mr. Baxter provided an update on the project and renderings of the future campus. He also answered questions from those in attendance.

Recipients of the grants from the 2018 Competitive Grant Cycle were also recognized. Grant recipients included: Blue Ridge Community Action, Burke Charitable Properties, Burke Council on Alcoholism and Chemical Dependency, Foothills Service Project, Options, Inc., Prevent Blindness North Carolina, Repay Inc., Salem United Methodist Church, Southmountain Children and Family Services, and The Meeting Place One, Inc. CFBC awarded $138,171 in grants to these nonprofits.

Following Her Dream with Nursing Scholarships

Lindsey Cales, an eighteen year old nursing student, was selected as the 2018 recipient of the Minnie Belle Rector Cooper Nursing Scholarship, the Stiff Endowment Scholarship and the Rotary Club of Valdese Scholarship. She was accepted into the Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute’s Nursing Degree Program in 2018 and completed her first year with a 4.0 G.P.A. In August of 2019, Lindsey looks forward to her first semester of actual nursing classes and beginning her clinicals. With the prescribed coursework and the scholarship awards, Lindsey can pursue her dream of becoming a geriatric nurse.

Lindsey knew she wanted to become a nurse after finishing her first CNA class as a senior in high school. Coincidentally, at the same time, her grandmother was in need of consistent care by family members to ensure quality end-of-life care. The impact of the nursing care provided to her grandmother led to Lindsey’s professional aspirations.

Additionally, Lindsey volunteered on an almost daily basis at Carolina Rehabilitation Center in Icard at sixteen years of age. She painted fingernails, talked with residents and made them laugh. With her desire to ensure appropriate and respectful care for elderly persons, Lindsey ultimately chose geriatric nursing.

With the opportunity to graduate in Spring 2021, with an RN degree and the ability to focus on her studies and not student loan repayment, Lindsey looks forward to working in Burke or Caldwell County. She recognizes the importance of giving back to one’s community who has invested so much in her. She aspires to serve as a nurse for Carolina’s HealthCare System Blue Ridge or Caldwell UNC Health Care.

As Lindsay reflects on the financial awards she received from these three endowed fund scholarships, she is thankful to each donor for the opportunity to fulfill her dream of becoming a nurse.
BYOP Provides Funding For Summer Camp

In 2018, Burke Youth Organized Philanthropists (BYOP) awarded The Foothills Conservancy of North Carolina (FCNC) a grant to help fund “Our Big Backyard – Kids in Nature.” During this weeklong camp, the staff and volunteers from FCNC introduced 43 young campers, ages eight to twelve years, to the beautiful nature that surrounds us. Multiple representatives from local organizations shared their knowledge with the attendees. Representatives included 4-H members, game wardens, forest rangers, hatchery technicians, wildlife biologists, veterinarians, and beekeepers.

FCNC is a nationally accredited regional land trust that preserves the natural and cultural heritage of our region by conserving scenic and recreational landscapes, productive farms and forests, healthy watersheds, rich biodiversity and vital wildlife habitats. The intent of FCNC’s grant was to provide an opportunity for children to “break away from screens and increase their outdoor literacy.” (FCNC focused on gender equality and reaching underserved children.)

Via “Our Big Backyard – Kids in Nature”, lucky campers visited educational and natural destinations in and around Burke County. On Day 1, participants traveled to Lake James State Park – Paddy’s Creek. On Day 2, the campers went to the Broughton Pond and visited a local farm. On Day 3, attendees journeyed to Tuttle Educational State Forest, and the Morganton Mini Farmers Market. On Day 4, partakers proceeded to Perry’s Berry’s to pick blueberries and explore with the animals of the farm. On the last day, the children remained at the Burke County Extension office and learned to make jam from their blueberries.

The BYOP grant assisted with tuition for financially eligible campers and provided funding for healthy lunches and snacks. Participants received camp T-shirts, reusable water bottles, educational resources (i.e., field journals and STEM activities), transportation, sunscreen, and bug spray. Beth Willard-Patton, Associate Director of FCNC stated, “It was so nice to have such a close knit support from our immediate community. It was amazing to see these funds directly benefiting the kids.” According to Sophie Shelton, Communications and Outreach Associate, FCNC’s dream is “to provide this experience to every child who wants to attend the camp. Eventually we would love to have so many children that we have to do multiple weeks with multiple age groups.”
Raquela Francisco became a member of the Burke Youth Organized Philanthropists (BYOP) in 2017. She learned of the organization from a co-worker at the Habitat for Humanity ReStore in Morganton, where she volunteered. Raquela thought this would be an interesting way to find out about the needs of the community and the importance philanthropy plays in meeting them.

Like all BYOP members, Raquela submitted an application and was interviewed by a team, led by Sara Black Moses, Volunteer Director. During the interview process, Sara and her team learned that Raquela attended Freedom High School and was consistently engaged in school activities. She was a member of the Color Guard Team, The Anchor Club, and The National Honor Society. Raquela volunteered at the Habitat for Humanity ReStore and was involved in the Upward Bound Program.

Raquela was selected for BYOP mentorship due to her demonstrated commitment to the community and wealth of experiential knowledge. Raquela stated that one of her favorite experiences in BYOP was being assigned a nonprofit in Burke County to research. Members were required to share their knowledge with their peers. Raquela said: “I’m grateful for the opportunity to learn more about all the nonprofits in my community. This is something I wouldn’t have been able to do without being a member of BYOP.” Also, she was honored to serve as a grant evaluator for applications submitted by local nonprofits. One of her favorite nonprofit organizations, Southmountain Children and Family Services, was awarded a grant in the 2018 cycle to purchase bikes and skates for foster children.

As Raquela prepares for college in the Fall of 2019, she will take the knowledge from BYOP, Freedom High School, Habitat for Humanity, and Upward Bound to make an impact on our world. In fact, all that know Raquela Francisco are convinced that she’ll actualize her dream of opening a dental practice for under-served and economically challenged persons.
Burke Women’s Fund Giving Circle

Since 2009, the Burke Women’s Fund (BWF), operating under the auspices of the Community Foundation of Burke County, has focused on issues that impact the lives of women and their families. As of December 31, 2018, BWF has awarded more than $272,990 to nonprofit agencies who are addressing those needs.

On April 15, 2018, the BWF held their annual celebration at the Morganton Community House to recognize 2018 grant recipients. The featured speakers were Carol Ervin and Sarah Dergins. The topic was ‘Addressing Burke County’s Opioid Epidemic: How Community Makes All the Difference”. Browning Rochefort, Executive Director of the Burke County Literacy Council, presented an update on the 2017 grant received from BWF. The “Running for Literacy” program has changed the lives of women and their families, both physically and intellectually.

This year’s grant recipients included the Burke County Literacy Council, Casting for Hope, First Presbyterian Church – “Sweet and Savory Delights Bakery”, and the Western Piedmont Council of Government.

The Burke Women’s Fund has grown its endowment fund to $123,158. In so doing, BWF has ensured the long term vision of advancing the power of collective giving among Burke County women.
