RAYMOND K. MILLER ENDOWMENT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

DESCRIPTION

The Raymond K. Miller Endowment Scholarship was established in March 2007 by Mattie Elinora B. Miller to honor the life of Raymond K. Miller by providing financial assistance to students at Western Piedmont Community College (WPCC).

Raymond Miller began his teaching career after serving four years in the United States Air Force both in the United States and Germany. After graduating from Eastern Kentucky State College, he taught junior high and high school in Ohio. Then he taught one year at Eastern Kentucky University on a Fellowship while earning a Master of Arts in Education. In 1967, he accepted a position at WPCC and retired after teaching for thirty years. In 1989, he was awarded the prestigious Excellence in Teaching Award, an award established by the Western Piedmont Foundation, Inc. He was a dedicated, altruistic, talented and caring educator who was an ardent believer in higher education for all students.

ELIGIBILITY

The scholarship is available to Burke County residents entering or already attending WPCC. The scholarship is renewable* for a maximum of five years, if the recipient maintains a minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA within the 4.0 grading system and maintains satisfactory academic progress. The Scholarship will be awarded without regard to race, creed, sex, ethnic background or handicap.

A past recipient of this scholarship may apply for renewal if the student maintains a 3.0 GPA within the 4.0 grading system and maintains satisfactory academic progress. The application must be completed again and submitted to the WPCC Financial Aid Office by March 16.
