

Sarah Pritchard, a graduate of Draughn High School and a student at Western Piedmont Community College, was awarded the Rotary Club of Valdese Scholarship to aid in her future education at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Sarah plans to graduate from Western Piedmont Community College with an associate's degree in arts and continue on to Greensboro to obtain a bachelor's degree in special education. She aspires to teach special needs children.