

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO JOIN THE BURKE WOMEN'S FUND
FOR THE 3RD ANNUAL CELEBRATION BRUNCH
TO ANNOUNCE THE GRANT RECIPIENTS FOR 2012

Featured Speaker: Katherine S Holliday

Katie started her career as a high school counselor prior to becoming an innovative thinker and advocate of children and families within the legal system in Charlotte NC. After completing her JD at Duke University School of Law she began practicing family law, but soon embarked on a mission to provide legal services in a new and creative way that was more child centered. She became one of the founders of the Children's Law Center in 1992. She continues to work diligently to help families through the legal system.

Exhibitor: Valaida Fullwood

The new 392-page hardcover book Giving Back reframes portraits of philanthropy with its vast collection of vivid stories and artful photography about giving. Author Valaida Fullwood, whose hometown is Morganton, will be on site to sell and sign books.

Saturday, February 25, 2012 • 10 am – noon

First United Methodist Church • 200 King Street, Morganton, NC

$15 per person payable at the door. Reserve your place by February 16 at BurkeWomen@gmail.com or call 438-8849. Bring a Friend with you.

All proceeds go to the Burke Women's Fund Endowment